

Vasudevan Suresh

V Suresh is a Civil Engineer from Anna University (College of Engineering, Guindy, Chennai) with over 53 years experience in Housing, Urban Development, Infrastructure and Real Estate Sectors and Sustainable Development .

Was former CMD HUDCO, with all-round growth in housing, innovative infrastructure development, use of appropriate technology applications in the built environment.

Is member of Housing & Real Estate Committees of CII & IMC, RICS International Property Measurement Standards Group.

He is the Chairman of IGBC Policy and Advocacy Committee, Chairman of Housing Committee and Vice Chairman of National Building Code of India of BIS.

He has received 16 awards and recognitions and to cap it with the CIDC Industry Doyen Award 2011 and IBC Life Time Achievement Award 2014 and CIA World Life Time Achievement Award 2017.

He is working as President Good Governance India Foundation for good urban governance initiatives for meeting the challenges of urbanization and making smart, green and vibrant cities through work on MUNICIPALIKA +CAPEX and IIPM and Urban News Digest.